Settlement and recovery

In today's economy, with tighter margins and increased legislation, subrogation is playing an increasingly important role in the risk-bearing industry. Our assertive recovery efforts provide clients with efficient means to recover the money due.

It is testament to our staff's proven experience and expertise in pursuing recoveries, as the need to engage independent legal counsel occurs in less than 2% of the active inventory. Once the claim is settled, funds are directed to us and deposited into a client dedicated Escrow Account, and the client's portion of the recovery is forwarded on a bi-monthly basis so there are no Account Payable concerns.
